

TUC Library Newsletter – May 2016

Each month the Library sends out a brief, online newsletter sharing any current general news and also highlights about different library resources and tools that may be of interest to you.

In between Library newsletters, look at the New in the Library page, or follow the Library on Facebook for current updates.

Congratulations Graduates!

Congratulations Class of 2016. Your hard work and dedication are truly an inspiration. The staff of the Touro University California Library would like to acknowledge graduating students who have contributed to campus life through the positions as Library student workers. We enjoyed having you work in the Library and wish you much success as you begin your careers.

Help us test online Study Room Reservations.

This summer the TUC Library will pilot an online reservation system for study rooms located in the Library. During the pilot students will be able to reserve a study room through the Library website. The online reservation tool includes a calendar that will provide up-to-date information on which rooms have been reserved and which are available. The pilot will run from June 2nd, 2016-July 7th, 2016. We welcome your feedback! More details to follow.

Mobile App for TUC Library coming soon

The Touro College and University libraries are in the process of finalizing a group license for the mobile app from the vendor Boopsie. The TUC library hopes to launch the new mobile app this summer before the start of the Fall semester. The specific feature list for the mobile app has yet to be discussed. We will keep you abreast once we have more details with announcements to the TUC group email lists, TU.edu and the library home page. Please stay tuned!

New Library Acquisitions

Follow the link to new purchases of books, e-books, journals and others library materials made for the TUC Library in April 2016. The list also includes gift materials cataloged for TUC Library collection in April.

Journal Trial: The Medical Letter on Drugs and Therapeutics

The TUC Library is continuing its trial to the online version of The Medical Letter on Drugs and Therapeutics through June 31st 2016. In July the TUC Library will begin an online subscription to this publication.

The Medical Letter is a searchable drug database which includes the following:

- evidence-based, peer-reviewed evaluations of new FDA-approved drugs with conclusions reached by a consensus of experts; new information on previously approved drugs including pivotal clinical trials, new indications, and safety warnings; comparative reviews of drugs for a given indication with particular attention to clinical efficacy, adverse effects, drug interactions, and cost.
- CME/CE – ability to earn up to 52 online credits per user, per year. The Medical Letter is fully accredited by the ACCME, AAFP, and ACPE.
- Free downloadable app for access on your handheld device.

For technical assistance with the trial please contact Electronic Resources Librarian Nathaniel Jenkins.

PsychiatryOnline Complimentary Book of the Month

Clinical Guide to Depression and Bipolar Disorder

Edited by Martin B. Keller, M.D., William H. Coryell, M.D., Jean Endicott, Ph.D., Jack D. Maser, Ph.D., and Pamela J. Schettler, Ph.D.

Clinical Guide to Depression and Bipolar Disorder summarizes key findings from the NIMH Collaborative Depression Study and related literature to provide comprehensive and up-to-date knowledge on the course and outcome of illness in mood disorders. Nowhere else can clinicians find such detailed longitudinal data, combined with astute clinical analysis of the current research.

Each chapter is accompanied by a time-saving summary, as well as a section on clinical implications that translates the findings into practical points and key recommendations clinicians need to know to provide optimal care. Psychiatrists, clinical psychologists, residents, and fellows will turn to Clinical Guide to Depression and Bipolar Disorder to better understand the course and outcome of their patients' mood disorders and, ultimately, to improve their clinical skills.

The TUC library has a number of electronic, print and eBook resources on Depression and Bipolar Disorder available. Follow this link to the Library Catalog and do a search for "Depression or Bipolar Disorder".

Summer Library Intern

Interning in the TUC Library this summer will be Amy Conley. She will be working part-time in the Library starting June 7 through August 5 to fulfill her field project requirements at the University of Wisconsin, Madison, School of Library and Information Studies. She hopes to go into a career in health sciences librarianship. We are happy to have her and to introduce her to some of the library work we do.

New Library Wall

To minimize the flow of noise between the Library south side (collaborative side) and Library north side (silent side), a wall with sound absorption panels and door will be installed between the two sides of the Library. Work is scheduled to begin on June 2.

APA Central

The APA Style Manual will soon be available online. In July, the APA is releasing APA Central, an online tool that will include not only the APA style manual but many other writing and citation tools and aids. The TUC Library is in the process of arranging a trial of it for our campus.
