

TUC Library Newsletter – January 2018

WELCOME

The TUC Library would like to welcome our students and faculty for the Spring 2018 semester. Once again we offer extended study hall hours until 1 a.m. on Fridays. We have some new resources available electronically 24/7, and have added several new journal titles to support the curriculum. The library offers a collaborative learning space as well as an area for silent study. Please be courteous of others and keep noise levels to a reasonable level on the collaborative side of the library. Also, please refrain from taking food into the silent study area.

LIBRARY NEWS

The TUC Library will be adding two additional standing desks. Please do not lower the standing desks to a seated desk height, as the library has ample regular seating and limited standing desk availability.

RESOURCE NEWS

Joanna Briggs Institute EBP Database

This comprehensive database covers a wide range of medical, nursing, and health science specialties and includes a unique suite of information that's been analyzed, appraised, and prepared by expert reviewers at JBI so you can integrate the world's best evidence into your practice:

- Evidence Summaries
- Evidence–Based Recommended Practices
- Best Practice Information Sheets
- Systematic Reviews
- Consumer Information Sheets - Systematic Review Protocols
- Technical Reports

Also included in the JB I EBP Database is a subscription to JB I Database of Systematic Reviews and Implementation Reports. The JB I Database of Systematic Reviews and Implementation Reports is a refereed, online journal that publishes systematic review protocols and systematic reviews of healthcare research following the JBI methodology and undertaken by the Joanna Briggs Institute and its international collaborating centers and groups. These reviews may be of quantitative or qualitative research data, text and/or opinion, relate to economic data or combinations of the above. The JB I Database of Systematic Reviews and Implementation Reports also publishes the Institute's implementation reports that present the findings of projects that seek to implement the best available evidence into practice.
