LIBRARY NEWS FOR JUNE 2019

FEATURED RESOURCES

Chronicle of Higher Education

The TUC Library now has this journal online. You can access it from our A-Z Journals or A-Z Databases webpages.

Don’t forget!

The TUC Library also has New York Times Online. You can sign up for a free account by going to the A-Z Databases webpage, scrolling down to the New York Times, and following the directions given. Then you’ll be able to sign in from any of your devices with your username and password.

THE LIBRARY ON CANVAS

Did you know the Library has an organization on Canvas? It’s true! There are resources to help you with your studies, and as we continue to build the course, more will appear. Right now you can find the Research Guides, which are FILLED with resources curated especially for each program. You can also find links to access the A-Z Databases, A-Z Journals, Library Catalog, and Library Directory pages.

As we continue to build the organization, please let us know if there is anything you would like us to add. After all, it is YOU for whom we are creating this space!

To access these resources while you’re in Canvas, simply look for the TUC Library Organization box on your Dashboard.

MOVIES STREAMING NOW!

The Library is beginning to offer streaming movies and will continue to add more (see section below on Kanopy under Current & Upcoming Trials). As we purchase more movies we will post them to our Canvas Organization (TUC Library) under Modules > Streaming Movies. They can be viewed in a classroom, privately at home or on campus, for a presentation or event, or in groups. For more information, please contact a librarian.

So far, this is what we have available:

- Unnatural Causes...Is Inequality Making Us Sick? (Also available on DVD)
- RACE: The Power of an Illusion
- Food for Change (CLICK HERE for a preview of this film.)

When we add more movies we will post in the news column on our website, to Facebook, and in the newsletter. Keep your eyes peeled!
CURRENT & UPCOMING TRIALS

LGBT Health Journal

Trialing from now through September 30th

LGBT Health is the premier peer-reviewed journal dedicated to promoting optimal healthcare for all sexual and gender minority persons worldwide. The Journal focuses specifically on health while maintaining sufficient breadth to address policy, legislative, and education and training issues relevant to the provision of healthcare and health outcomes. This Journal aims to advance understanding of the health needs particular to each sexual and gender minority population and to improve delivery of and access to culturally competent healthcare.

KANOPY: A Movie Streaming Service

Trialing from July 1st to August 30th

Kanopy

The popular on-demand film streaming service Kanopy is now available for a trial period of two months. Students, faculty, and staff can access Kanopy and sign up to start streaming films instantly once the trial is live (July 1st). Films can be streamed from any computer, television, mobile device or platform by downloading the Kanopy app. We have chosen a package that includes the Great Courses, over 4700 documentaries, and so much more. Topics include health and wellness, ethnicity and identity, K-12 lessons, nursing, mental health, women and society, to name just a few. So, check it out and let us know what you think!

LIBRARIANS PRESENT POSTER AT NATIONAL & REGIONAL LIBRARY CONFERENCES

Amy Castro & Julie Horwath attended the Medical Library Association’s national and regional conferences to present a poster on how Touro College & University System (TCUS) librarians at different campuses collaborated to offer a research development webinar series.
NEW WAY TO ACCESS RESOURCES OFF CAMPUS COMING IN FALL

In early fall, the Library will replace the current Web Access Management Login (from off-campus) with OpenAthens and a TouroOne login. You will then access Library resources from off-campus with your TouroOne account (fewer passwords!). Please watch for announcements from the Library on the OpenAthens go live date.

NEW JOURNALS NOW IN LIBRARY

- Journal of Health Care for the Poor and Underserved
- Journal of Nursing Regulation

NEW JOURNALS AVAILABLE SOON

Availability of these journals will be announced in the news column on the Library webpage.

- Medical Teacher
- Nature Genetics
- Journal of Positive Behavior Interventions

SOME SPECIAL BOOK RECOMMENDATIONS

The following two books were gifts from our librarians, Amy Castro and Julie Horwath. While at the Medical Librarian Association Conference in Chicago this May, they were fortunate enough to see the two authors speak and get the books signed.

- Scarlet A: The Ethics, Law, and Politics of Ordinary Abortion, by Katie Watson
- Period Power: A Manifesto for the Menstrual Movement, by Nadya Okamoto

The following books are also new to the library:

- The Moment of Lift: How Empowering Women Changes the World, by Melinda Gates
- Educated: A Memoir, by Tara Westover
The Collected Schizophrenias; Essays, by Esme Weijun Wang

The Disordered Mind: What Unusual Brains Tell us About Ourselves, by Eric Kandel

Unthinkable: And Extraordinary Journey Through the World’s Strangest Brains, Helen Thomson

So, when you need a break from studying, stop by and check out one of these books. For TUC faculty or staff, let us know if you want one of these books and we will check them out to you and send them to your office.

PROXY ERRORS

You may have experienced some websites that are not behaving as expected lately. Maybe you have gotten proxy errors or privacy warnings, or maybe the website isn’t loading or you’ve been asked to sign into your library account and are not able to do so. Please know that the Library is aware of this and has been working to resolve the issues. Unfortunately, we are dependent on others to help us with this, so it is not a quick process. Here are a few tips to help you get past this problem until it is resolved.

These issues appear to be from the use of cookies, which has increased dramatically in many of the resources we provide. These cookies appear to cause communication issues between the browser and website, resulting in errors and other issues. If something odd happens to you, try the following:

- Most of the time, clearing your cache will resolve the issues. We know this is not an ideal fix, but it works almost 100% of the time. (click here to learn how)

- Try using a different browser.

- Try using an incognito window. (click here to learn how)

If you have tried all of the above and are still having trouble, please don’t hesitate to contact Julie Horwath, our electronic resources librarian, for more help. Additionally, if you come across privacy or security warnings, please let Julie know. Thanks!
